What Women Want: The Campaign that sparked a Revolution

AlignMNH Opening Forum

ANGELA NGUKU
Founder & Executive Director, WRA Kenya
ARE YOU READY FOR A Revolution?

WHAT WOMEN WANT!
EQUITY
Women and girls have spoken, now it’s time to listen.

Since the early days of Hamara Swasthya Hamari Awaaz

359 partners gathered 1,197,006 demands from 114 countries.
What Women Want methodology

• What is your one request for quality reproductive and maternal health care services?
• 70% of responses were hand-coded
• Ultimately landed on 39 categories with the launch of the What Women Want Dashboard
Top answers globally

- Respectful and dignified care
- Water, sanitation and hygiene
- Medicines and supplies
- Increased, competent and better supported midwives and nurses
- Increased, fully functional and closer health facilities
Women’s and girls’ voices catalyzing change

- 2 million+ people mobilized
- More than 20 policy changes focused on top WWW demands
- 6 country accountability mechanisms strengthened
- 5 country resource wins
- 2,000+ health workers hired/promoted
- 350+ health facilities updated
Women’s demands acted upon: A closer look

• Kenya: Gender Mainstreaming Policy in Kajiado County
• Nigeria: Fully functioning toilets in Niger State
WWW Dashboard

Power in Numbers: Power in Words

• Launched at the CSW65 late last month

• Interactive- What Women Want Dashboard - White Ribbon Alliance

• Allows one to view women and girls demands, in their own raw words

• The dashboard allows for a truly unparalleled level of access into women’s demands by connecting women’s voices with the almost infinite possibilities of digital — analysis
LISTEN ACT
BE PART OF THE REVOLUTION

Download the full findings: whatwomenwant.org/globalfindings